

Orientation programme: The Master's Programme in Economics

Wednesday 30.08.2017

	The introduction takes place in CSS Building 35, room 35.01.44
09.00 – 09.15	The programme of the day and a light breakfast with croissants, coffee and tea
09.15 - 09.45	The Head of Study Henrik Hansen and IMECO welcome the new master students to the department of Economics!
09.45 - 10.30	Master student Mathilde Else Ripka Mammen tells about her master thesis "Green Regulation and Globalization" (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A)
10.30 – 10.15	Break
10.15 – 11.00	Economist Martin Gregers Birk tells about his career as an analyst at Carnegie Investment Bank and his career choices after graduating (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A).
11.00 – 11.15	Break
11.15 - 12.00	Economist Flora Nagy from The Danish National Bank tells about her career and career choices after graduating – and why she chose to work with banking (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A).
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch time (There will be served sandwiches on the house)
13.00 – 13.45	The student counsellor at the department Sine Below tells about the master's programme in Economics, the curriculum, deadlines etc.
13.45 – 14.00	Break
14.00 – 14.30	Associated Professor Marco Piovesan tells about his topic of teaching, his research and gives insights to his lectures at the master's programme
14.30 – 15.00	Associated professor Christoph Scott-Müller tells about his topic of teaching, his research and gives insights to his lectures at the master's programme
15.00 –	Social intervention hosted by IMECO!

Thursday 31.08.2017

09.00 – 09.15	The introduction takes place in CSS Building 35, room 35.01.44 The programme of the day and a light breakfast with croissants, coffee and tea
----------------------	--

09.15 - 10.00	Master student Vibeke Borch Henning tells about her master thesis "How does Information effect choice?" (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A)
10.00 – 10.15	Break
10.15 – 11.00	Economist Anda Ciprusa from Dong Energy tells about her career and career choices after graduating. Anda is currently working as a Senior Operational Analyst and will share insights from her daily work (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A).
11.00 – 11.15	Break
11.15 – 12.00	Economist Sidsel Hviid give her perspectives on her career choices –how it is to work at the New Danish Environmental Protection Agency and about study choices and relevant study jobs (30 minutes speak and 15 minutes Q&A).
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch time (bring your own lunch bag or buy your lunch at the canteen)
13.00 – 13.30	The student counsellor at the department Sine Below tells about academic culture, academic writing and how to avoid plagiarism
13.30 – 14.00	A Ph.D.-student unfold her/his Ph.D.-project and tells about how it is to be part of new economic research
14.00 – 14.30	Professor John Rand tells about his topic of teaching, his research and gives insights to his lectures at the master's programme
14.30 – 15.00	Chairmen Bjarke Dahl Mogensen and Freja Thim from the study political organization Politrådet tells about what the organization and why their work is important for the study and study culture at the department
15.00 –	Social intervention hosted by IMECO!

Friday 01.09.2017

	Danish students	International students
Room:	35.01.06	35.01.05
08.45-09.00		Welcome with coffee + croissant
09.00-09.30	Welcome with coffee + croissant	Introduction to the faculty
09.30-10.00	Introduction to the faculty	Presentation about Danish study culture
10.00-10.30	Projects and career counselling	Introduction to the IT facilities and library
10.30-11.00	Introduction to the IT facilities and library	Presentation about Denmark and the Danish culture
11.00-12.00	BAZAR	BAZAR