INTRODUCTION DAYS
at Anthropology, August 29. – 30. 2019

THURSDAY, August 29.
Intro day for new MSc students at Anthropology in room CSS 5.0.28

09.30-10.00 Arrival – breakfast, coffee & small talk
10.00-10.15 The program begins: Meet & greet 😊
10.15-10.30 Welcome by Head of studies Heiko Henkel
10.30-11.05 Presentation of the curriculum for the MSc in Anthropology & some words about student life by the Student Advisory Service
11.05-11.15 Break
11.15-12.00 "The Secret Life of Citations: Who Students Cite the Most (and Other Unusual Facts)" – what do anthropologists write their theses about? by Kristoffer Albris, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology
12.00-12.40 How to do your fieldwork and thesis with a fellow student by XX (to be announced), MSc graduates 2019
12.40-13.15 Lunch – sandwiches are on the house!
13.15-13.25 Pep talk from the local student council (Fagrådet)
13.25-14.00 First hand experiences with the master’s program. About choices, courses, fieldwork and the thesis process by XX (to be announced), graduate 2019
14.00-14.15 Break
14.15-15.00 The transition from student life to work life as an anthropologist by MSc Helena Linde Pedersen, Senior Anthropologist at IS IT A BIRD, graduate 2016

www.isitabird.dk
FRIDAY, August 30.

Intro day for all new MSc students at the Faculty of Social Sciences in room CSS 35.01.05

09.00-09.30  Presentation: Denmark & Danish Culture by CultureAct
09.30-10.00  Presentation: Danish Study Culture
10.00-10.30  Pause
10.30-11.00  Welcome to the Faculty of Social Sciences by Associate Dean for Education Andreas de Neergaard
11.00-11.15  Presentation: The Project & Career Advisory Service by Maibritt Jensen
11.15-12.00  Introduction to the IT and library facilities
12.00-12.30  Bazar - meet the societies, associations and initiatives on campus who can make your study life more fun and easy!